

NEW ZEALAND PACIFIC UNION CONFERENCE

AVONDALE NEW ZEALAND STUDENTS SCHOLARSHIP

For New Zealand students attending Avondale College

2019

Information and Criteria

The New Zealand Pacific Union Conference (NZPUC) acknowledges the additional costs involved for New Zealand students attending Avondale College.

The purpose of this scholarship is to assist in making an Avondale education more viable for New Zealand students and to increase the supply of denominationally trained workers for the church in New Zealand.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- a) The applicant must be enrolled/enrolling in undergraduate study or a Bachelor of Teaching or Graduate Diploma in Ministry/Theology.
- b) Applicants must be
 - i. New Zealand residents with New Zealand continuing to be their home base, OR
 - ii. Dependent children of denominational employees transferred from Australia to New Zealand in response to an official call of the Church.
- c) The applicant must demonstrate a commitment to Christ and to the lifestyle and teachings of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. This includes regular attendance and appropriate involvement at their local Seventh-day Adventist Church. It is generally expected that applicants will have signified their commitment to Christ and the Seventh-day Adventist Church through baptism.
- d) Applicants, other than students who are dependents of denominational employees transferred from Australia, must be intending and available to return to denominational employment in New Zealand following the completion of their qualification and work one year for each year assistance is received.
- e) Students enrolled in Masters or Doctoral programmes are not eligible.

TERMS

1. This assistance is granted on an annual basis. The receipt of assistance in any year does not guarantee that this assistance will continue for the applicant's remaining years of study. This assistance must be applied for each year.
2. For 2019, the value of the scholarship will be calculated as follows:

Full fee paying Student	A$375 per subject
CSP/HECS Student	A$213 per subject
Residential Student	A$577 per semester

3. The scholarship is not available for subjects that are withdrawn or repeated. The applicant must remain enrolled in each subject for which support is given throughout the semester
4. The scholarship granted will be credited to the student's account as an offset against fees and the corresponding charge sent through to the New Zealand Pacific Union Conference.
5. Successful applications cannot be deferred. Re-application will be necessary.
6. Applications should be submitted to the New Zealand Pacific Union Conference Secretary Treasurer before 20th February 2019, or where students are starting in Semester Two by 31 July 2019. Late applications may be received at the discretion of the Secretary Treasurer.
7. The New Zealand Pacific Union Conference is responsible for authorising all applications for the Scholarship and shall notify both the applicant and Avondale College of the approval.
8. Except for students who are dependents of denominational employees transferred from Australia:
 - i. Scholarship recipients who decline a call to serve in New Zealand, or in case of teachers decline a request by the Director of Education to apply for and accept a job offer, will be required to reimburse the New Zealand Pacific Union Conference the total value of assistance received.
 - ii. Those who leave denominational employment in New Zealand prior to serving the equivalent number of years for which this assistance was received will be required to reimburse the New Zealand Pacific Union Conference on a pro rata basis.

PROCESS

1. Applications will usually be processed within 2 weeks of the advertised closing date.
2. Details of successful applications will be provided directly to Avondale College.
3. Applicants will be formally notified in writing.
4. Applications should be posted to:
