

KING FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP

The Conservatorium offers the King Family Scholarship to students at Avondale College of Higher Education who have a passion for music and a desire to sing with the vocal ensembles, the Avondale Singers and The Promise.

All students enrolled in a degree course who are not majoring in vocal music can apply for the scholarship. The conservatorium awards a maximum of two scholarships at any one time. The conservatorium awards the scholarship on a needs basis to encourage and recognize worthy students who demonstrate potential aptitude in and commitment to vocal music.

DETAILS

The King Family Scholarship is worth $500 per student per semester of study ($1000 per year). The money for the scholarship comes from the King Family Scholarship Reserve, which is funded by the King family.

Music runs deep through Brian and Barbara King's family. Barbara's mother, Doris, taught music into her 80s. Barbara, an Avondale alumna, is a soprano soloist and former member of the Avondale Symphonic Choir. Eldest daughter Aleta is a former Musical Director of London Adventist Chorale and is now Director of Avondale Conservatorium. Youngest daughter Jacinta studied postgraduate communication and is a former tour manager for the Soweto Gospel Choir. Brian is a lifelong support of Barbara, Aleta and Jacinta in their musical endeavours.

CONDITIONS

- 1 The scholarship is available to all students enrolled in a degree course at Avondale College of Higher Education who are not majoring in vocal music.
- 2 The scholarship is awarded subject to the applicant meeting normal requirements for direct admission ideally as a full-time student or, at the discretion of the Avondale Conservatorium Director, as a part-time student into a degree course.
- 3 The scholarship is awarded subject to the applicant: completing a successful interview with the Avondale Conservatorium Director; then auditioning successfully for The Promise; and finally enrolling in private voice tuition over one academic year.
- 4 The scholarship recipient must serve as a member of Avondale Singers and The Promise and commit to attending all required rehearsals and performances.
- 5 The semester value of the scholarship will be applied to the recipient's tuition account once all academic enrolment procedures are finalised and cannot be redeemed for cash.
- 6 If the recipient is not, by the date of the census, meeting all the conditions of the scholarship, the scholarship will be discontinued.
- 7 The scholarship is not transferable and cannot be deferred.
- 8 Continuance of the scholarship for additional semesters of study is subject to the recipient continuing as an enrolled student at Avondale College of Higher Education, maintaining an academic status of good standing, maintaining satisfactory status as a member of Avondale Singers and of The Promise, and maintaining private voice tuition.
- 9 All recipients should be of good standing in the community. Scholarships or part thereof may be revoked at the discretion of the Avondale College of Higher Education Discipline Committee, where the recipient brings the name of Avondale into disrepute.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Applicants should, by no later than the first day of classes for each semester, contact Avondale Conservatorium to ask about the availability of the King Family Scholarship for that year.

If the scholarship is available, applicants must:

- 1 Complete the attached King Family Scholarship Application form; and
- 2 Complete an interview with the Avondale Conservatorium Director.

See “Conservatorium of Music Enquiries” this page for contact details.

The King Family Scholarship is awarded subject to the applicant completing a successful interview with the Avondale Conservatorium Director. During the interview, the director will ask the applicant to demonstrate their need for voice tuition and explain what the opportunity to be a member of Avondale Singers and of The Promise means to them.
