

W.A. TOWNEND CHRISTIAN JOURNALISM AWARD 2009

The award is offered in memory of Pastor W.A. Townend, a minister of the Seventh-day Adventist Church who for more than sixty years was a much-loved pastor, administrator and teacher, and witnessed for his Lord as a prolific Christian writer.

DETAILS

The W.A. Townend Christian Journalism Award is valued at $500, and is being offered to an Avondale student with a publication record of writings with a Christian focus.

CRITERIA

1. The award is offered for one year only to an Avondale student in the third or fourth year of a degree course.
2. The recipient will be a student with a significant publication record of quality writings with a Christian focus.
3. The recipient will have achieved at least a credit average in degree studies in the year preceding tenure of the award.
4. The award will be paid into the student's account to offset Avondale's first semester fees and charges.

CONDITIONS

1. The award may be held in conjunction with another Avondale scholarship, or award.
2. The recipient may apply to the Scholarship Officer to defer the award for a maximum of one year.

SELECTION PROCESS

1. The letter of application for the W.A. Townend Christian Journalism Award should be submitted to the Scholarship Officer together with a portfolio of the applicant's published writings.
2. In some cases Avondale will contact a person who knows you well; please provide the name and phone number of a person, such as a school teacher, pastor or employer, who is willing to provide a character reference for you.
3. Closing date for applications: 2 March 2009.
