

What is the Disclaimer?

The disclaimer is a legal notice. The Disclaimer needs to be agreed to in order to become a student at Avondale. If you do not agree to the legal notice, simply close down the Self Enrolment and contact Student Administration Services to withdraw your application.

How do I submit my Disclaimer?

Step 1: Read the Disclaimer

Example:

 Step 1. Disclaimer

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING LEGAL NOTICE BEFORE PROCEEDING

This system is for authorised access only. Your access is restricted to your personal logon ID and password. It is a serious breach of Avondale College of Higher Education (Avondale) regulations to use the logon ID and password of any other student to log on to the system.

If you do not agree with any of these conditions, close down this web page in your browser to exit.

Avondale is responsible for providing accurate information, as well as advice and support, but it is the responsibility of students to ensure that all details of their enrolment are correct.

You must not give or share your Avondale password with any other person. Avondale will not be responsible for any disadvantage you incur by failing to keep your password secure.

Avondale will not accept any liability for failure of students to ensure accurate enrolment details.

Bugs Bunny, please click the 'Agree & Continue' button to accept these conditions and proceed with enrolment.

Agree & Continue →

Step 2: Submit Disclaimer

To submit and accept the conditions of enrolment and proceed select the 'I Agree' button.

Example:

please click the 'Agree & Continue' button to accept these conditions and proceed with enrolment.

Agree & Continue →