What is Activity Selection?

Activity selection is the process of choosing times and day's tutorials, labs and other activities related to your units where there are multiple timetable choices. Not all units have choices for their tutorials, labs other activities. Most units do not have a choice for lecture times. If you are completing your units through a Distance mode, you are not required to complete this task.

If you enrol in the Bachelor of Nursing or a Vocational Education and Training (VET) course you are not able to select your activities in Student Connect.

Step 4: Do you have any unit activity clashes?

Any clashes with units and your chosen activities will appear once you have assigned your activities. A warning lamp and/or pop will appear on the page highlighting this issue.

Example:

Important:
If you have any clashes between lectures, you will not be able to complete the assigning of activities (i.e. tutorials) until those clashes have been resolved.

Please submit a 'Timetable Clash Form' to the Timetable Coordinator email timetable@avondale.edu.au to have these clashes resolved. Your Course Convenor may need to assist you with an alternative unit to resolve the clash.

Once you have resolved the clash you will then need to return to this page to select your tutorials, labs and assign activities.

Size Limits:
Each tutorial has a size limit and if the tutorial/lab option is full then the radio button not be able selectable. If you have no valid tutorial options available to you then you will need to talk with the lecturer of the unit.
