How do I select/choose my units?Step 1: Choose your Units

Before you can enrol in your units, you need to know what units you are going to take. The units will be different depending on the course and your chosen Specialisation, Major or Minor (if applicable). The Avondale website has information about the units you need to study. This information is available under the specific course that you are studying <http://www.avondale.edu.au/courses>. Usually the course grids will be available under the 'Course Structure' heading for your course.

Alternatively, you can contact your course convenor for advice specific to your course. A full listing of course convenors specific to your year of study is available on the Avondale website www.avondale.edu.au/courseconvenors.

For assistance please do not hesitate to contact Student Administration Services email: studentadmin@avondale.edu.au or Phone: (02) 4980 2377.

Period	Unit Code	Campus	Class	Enrolled CP	Study Load	Status	Edit
2019/N2	NURS10012	LAKEMAC	ONCAMPUS	6.000	0.000	 INVALID	...

Important:
If a unit has a status of 'INVALID' you are not enrolled in the unit.

This means that there is a rule in the database against the unit that you have not yet met. To view what the rule might be select the 'INVALID' status to find out more information.

Step 1: Review the Reason for the Invalid against the Unit

To review the reason for the 'INVALID' select the word and a pop up will appear.

Period	Unit Code	Unit Name	Campus	Class	Census Date	Status	Notes
2021/N2	NURS10012	Applied Nursing Practice 2	LAKEMAC	ONCAMPUS	01/09/2021	 INVALID	Added

Example:

Student has not satisfied a pre-requisite for unit NURS10012. You must have passed 3 units from this list: {NURS10011, NURS10015, NUSC10057} before you can enrol in this unit.

Step 2: Resolve Invalid Unit or Ask for Assistance

Depending on the message you receive when reviewing the INVALID status, you can do the following:

Option A:

If the message is saying you have not completed a pre-requisite unit but you know you are currently completing the unit and are waiting for grades, you can leave the 'Invalid' unit and wait until a grade has been entered for the pre-requisite unit(s) and then check that the 'INVALID' has been resolved.

This scenario is very common for nursing units and can occur if you still have to complete Clinical Placement or Special Requirements such as vaccinations, national police checks etc.

Option B:

For assistance please do not hesitate to contact Student Administration Services email: studentadmin@avondale.edu.au or Phone: (02) 4980 2377.

Option C:

You can contact your course convenor for advice. You can find the course convenor contact details by selecting the 'Contact Course Convenor' button on the Unit Enrolment Step. This will take you to a webpage where you can find the PDF listing the course convenor for your course.

You can take a screenshot using your computer or mobile device and email any message you receive to the appropriate person. The use of screen shots and descriptions of the issue can assist the support person or course convenor to see what you have received on the screen.

Step 3: Close the Invalid Message

To close the pop-up just click somewhere else on the screen.

Step 4: Check your Enrolment Record

Once you believe your 'INVALID' unit has been resolved please ensure that you check your 'Enrolment Record' for any changes making sure that the unit has an 'E' indicating enrolled.

	Important: All INVALID units need to be resolved by the commencement of the teaching period.

I have a unit to enrol in but I cannot find it in the Shopping Cart. Why?
