

GRAHAM MILLER MEMORIAL PRIZE for YOUTH MINISTRY

Purpose of the Prize

Pr Graham Miller's wife Zita set up a trust (est. 1976) managed by the South Pacific Division of the Seventh-day Adventist Church (SPD), in honour of her late husband's outstanding contribution to the youth in the South Pacific Division.

Graham was a graduate of the Theology program of Avondale University (1947). During the following twenty-nine years of service he served eight years in evangelism then seventeen years in devoted service to the youth of the church. During this time, he served as Youth Director for the Australasian Division and Dean of Students at Avondale. He was always concerned for the spiritual safety of young people of the church and had a gift to communicate with them and draw them to Christ. He loved young people.

Pr Miller was a man of God, a strong counsellor, a man of vision, a lover of life, and a friend to all... he had the marks of nobility upon him, he had the charisma of a leader about him and he had the compassion of humanity within him. He was much loved and highly respected.
